1. Reference materials are available for use in the library and online.

2. Requests for materials are limited to five per transaction. Requests for information are limited to three per transaction.

3. The library adopts and adheres to the American Library Association Code of Ethics as stated in the WPL Ethics Policy.

4. The reference staff will not interpret legal, tax, or medical information.

Policies that are required by statute are automatically amended to reflect any changes in said statute.

Website of the Waukegan Public Library revised and maintained by:

Richard Lee, Executive Director

Send comments to richardlee@waukeganpl.info