

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Week 2: April 9th-15th

Complete the library themed crossword puzzle. The winner will be the first person to turn in the puzzle with the correct answers. Remember, included in the puzzle are clues to the Whodunit.

ACROSS

1. The area of the library that contains aids for finding information.
5. Area where the majority of library materials are shelved.
6. A general term for information.
7. A machine readable code with lines and numbers identifying a product.
8. A collection of historical documents or records.
11. Very dangerous or harmful in influence or effect.
14. RFID machine used to track library materials.
16. To let out a wild, uncontrolled burst of anger or frustration.
17. Dept. where learning takes place using toys, books and games.
18. Name of the library's branch on North Baldwin St.
19. ALA slogan "Libraries Transform _____!"
21. Online discussion forum
22. A person who administers or assists in a library.

DOWN

2. Area where materials can be checked in and out, on holds picked up, renewals processed and fines paid.
3. Reason for doing something, especially one that is hidden or not obvious.
4. A particular version of a text that has been revised or created from a substantially new setting of type.
5. Group who set policies and procedures to ensure that the library is responsible and responsive to community needs.
9. To make void, revoke or annul.
10. A person thought to be guilty of a crime or offense.
11. Something difficult or impossible to understand or explain.
12. Making entries for and preparing a book for the shelf.
13. A small individual cake, baked in a cup-shaped mold.
15. When a patron extends a loan on materials borrowed.
20. Code given to books or editions of books before publication to identify the publisher, title, edition, and volume.