

COSMIC BRADBURY WRITING CONTEST

RULES & ENTRY FORM

Venture into the deep expanses of space and the planets it contains. Show off your imagination and creativity by writing an original short story with the theme of space and space travel.

Does your universe have alien life forms or is it slowly being colonized by a vastly expanding human race? If you impress the judges and make Ray Bradbury proud, you will be beamed a $50 Amazon gift card!

Eligibility

14 years of age and older.

Formats Accepted

Short story/essay. No more than 5 pages single-spaced.

Deadline

All entries must be received on or before January 29, 2021. Entries may be emailed or attached to the online form on or before the deadline. Mailed entries must be received by the deadline or sooner. Late entries will not be accepted.

Winners

Winning entry will be announced on February 5, 2021. The announcement will be in the form of a video, during which the winning entry will be read aloud.

Judges

The names of the judges will be available upon request.

Submit online or mail entries to:

Waukegan Public Library
Attention: Gabriel Scuglik
128 North County Street
Waukegan, IL 60085

Email entries to: gabrielscuglik@waukeganpl.info

Complete Online Entry Form

Library employees, board members, and their immediate family are not eligible to participate.*

Library is not responsible for lost or damaged displayed work.*

If you would like a copy of the entry form and these rules mailed to you, please call 847-623-2041 x 232, or email Gabriel Scuglik at gabrielscuglik@waukeganpl.info.

To be submitted with entry. Incomplete forms will result in disqualification.

Name of Entrant: _____

Age: _____

Phone Number: _____

City: _____

State: _____

Email: _____

Title of Work: _____

Signature: _____